Learning experiences and expertise with other state and regional education representatives. has worked closely with multiple states (featured here) to support and share their Accelerated Learning Work Group, sponsored by the National Comprehensive Center. Accelerated Learning Resources

- Introductory Resources?
- Acceleration Resources

What is Accelerated Learning? & What are some Introductory Resources?

Accelerated Learning: A powerful learning approach designed to help all learners progress toward grade-level proficiency, close learning gaps, and advance students to the next grade level. It is a research-based strategy that focuses on targeted, differentiated instruction, flexible grouping, and accelerated pacing.

Accelerated Learning Resources

- Professional Learning for Educators
- Inspired by: Carnegie.org, TNTP.org, Paper.co

How should Accelerated Learning be implemented?

- Adopt an acceleration strategy based on student need.
- Build partnerships with families, school systems, and community organizations.
- Provide tailored attention to students.
- Maintain grade-level trajectories.
- Diagnose needs rapidly.
- Build on previous knowledge.
- Develop an acceleration roadmap.
- Out-of-school time.
- Summer learning/enrichment.

How are educators best supported during implementation?

- Support educators as they implement acceleration strategies.
- Provide smaller class sizes to ensure appropriate staffing.
- Build partnerships with educational and community organizations.
- Provide tailored attention to students.
- Engage families and other stakeholders in the acceleration process.

How should Accelerated Learning be assessed?

- Use formative assessments to diagnose needs rapidly.
- Provide targeted attention to students.
- Monitor student progress and next steps for student learning.
- Conduct summative assessments to inform next steps for student learning.

Accelerated Learning: A powerful learning approach designed to help all learners progress toward grade-level proficiency, close learning gaps, and advance students to the next grade level. It is a research-based strategy that focuses on targeted, differentiated instruction, flexible grouping, and accelerated pacing. Accelerated Learning is and what it is not. Use the following resources to learn more about Accelerated Learning.

- Introductory Resources?
- Acceleration Resources

In the box, even more ideas about Accelerated Learning are described to support student learning. The roadmap provides a focused, phased approach for teachers and leaders. Support student learning. The roadmap provides a focused, phased approach for teachers and leaders. Support student learning. The roadmap provides a focused, phased approach for teachers and leaders. Support student learning. The roadmap provides a focused, phased approach for teachers and leaders. Support student learning. The roadmap provides a focused, phased approach for teachers and leaders. Support student learning. The roadmap provides a focused, phased approach for teachers and leaders.